A LIFE INS. AGENT IN CHICAGO

induced a friend to insure for $5,000. When second premium was due, the man was unable to pay and the agent paid the premium for him, taking note therefor. The man died shortly, leaving his family penniless except insurance of $5,000 due the wife. The wife was asked to pay the agent the amount of the note; a lawyer advised her that the full $5,000 was due and she need pay none of her husband's debts. She collected $5,000 and did not pay the note. Some folks think that is all life insurance agents are good for. We aim and operate the best insurance in the world. 56th year, doing business in 42 states.

Geo. L. Cummings, engineer on the Montpelier & Wells River Railroad, residence at Prospect Street, Barre, says: "What I stated first in the month of February, 1897, about Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at E. A. Drown's, stopping continual pains across my back was absolutely true. It was often so bad that at times I was unable to do my work, and so severe at night that I was so lame and sore I could scarcely lie comfortably in any position and as if that were not sufficient to aggravate the ordinary mortal there was added to it trouble with the kidney secretions, particularly irregularity. The jarring of the train, if not the direct cause of the kidney complaint, certainly aggravated it, and Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of a very acute attack. I was only too pleased to make it known. Since that Mrs. Cummings has bought Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. They certainly brought her relief. I have more than one friend who is thankful for the knowledge he has gained about Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for United States.

EXAMINE STOMACHS.

Vermont State Laboratory Has the Wood Alcohol Cases.

Burlington Dec. 5.—A box of something was received at the state laboratory of hygiene in this city a few days ago, upon which were no instructions.

Yesterday the chemists saw in the papers that the stomach of Denver Reynolds of Pittsfield had been sent to the laboratory for examination and surmised that the mysterious box contained the exhibit. Investigation proved the surmise to be true and a little later came a letter telling of the box.

The chemists at the laboratory are agreed that the exhibit in the Richmond poisoning case in so far as the bottles of liquor are concerned are wood alcohol and will so report to the authorities at the hearing in the case on Thursday. No report on the stomachs of the victims can be obtained by that time but the other exhibit is considered to be by far the most important one.

APPOINTMENTS BY MAJ. WOOD.

J. H. Goulding, of Wilmington, Named as National Patriotic Instructor.

Maj. S. H. Wood, department commander of the department of Vermont, G. A. R., has made the following appointments and they have been forwarded to the adjutant-general for approval:

George P. Blair, assistant instructor-general for the department of Vermont on the staff of Corp. James Tanner, commander-in-chief; and the Hon. Kittredge Hawksins, of Brattleboro, member of Congress from the second Vermont district, Assistant Judge Richard Smith, of West Enosburg, John R. Wilson, of Worcester, Nixon Morse, of Derby, Milo Lyman, of Rutland, and Albert McDowdies, of Bennington, aides-de-camp on the staff of the commander-in-chief.

At the last national encampment the office of national patriotic instructor was created in place of the office of special aide in charge of military instruction and patriotic instruction in public schools the latter office being abolished. He has become obligatory on the department commander to appoint a department patriotic instructor and Department Commander Wood has appointed J. H. Goulding, Post 44, of Wilmington, the former special aide, to this office.

In the Wrong Environment.

The commercial traveller, while waiting for a train, tried to open a conversation with the tired-looking citizen who was merely waiting to see the train come in.

"What is the population of this town?" he asked.

"Turned if I know," said the man.

"Oh, you live here?"

"Yes."

"Good deal of business done in this place, for the size of it, isn't there?"

"Oh, I don't know. Some says there is, and some says there ain't."

"I suppose there is more or less live stock shipped from here?"

"I never noticed about that."

"Who owns the mill over there?"

"I don't think I ever heard his name."

"Does the same man run the newspaper here that used to run it?"

"I forget whether it's the same man or not."

"By the way, who is the congressman from this district?"

"You've got me there."

"How does this town vote, as a general thing—Republican or Democratic?"

"Blamed if I know."

"Say, my friend," said the commercial traveller, "I wish you lived in Chicago."

"What for?"

"I think we could use you on the Gilhooley jury."—Chicago Tribune.

Was Afraid of Punishment at School.

Because she was afraid she would be punished when she arrived at school, Carrie Chamberlin, the eleven-year-old daughter of Mrs. Anna H. Chamberlin, of Burlington, wandered into the country last Tuesday morning, and was found at night exhausted and nearly frozen to death. She is in a critical condition.

Monday night Miss Josephine A. Slayton, who is Carrie Chamberlin's teacher at school, gave the girl a note to deliver to her mother. The note had reference to the child's behavior in school and she did not give it to her mother.
